

Job Description

Date: 14th April 2016

Job Title:	Technologist
Location:	Plascoat Systems Ltd., Farnham
Job Purpose:	To assist in laboratory work for product improvement and development as well as technical service.
Reporting to:	Technical Manager

Key Responsibilities

1. To perform laboratory work according to business needs.
2. To ensure that product related activities are progressed and completed in a timely manner.
3. To write reports when necessary on technical work
4. To be actively engaged in the health and safety, product improvement and development programmes
5. To assist other technical personnel, production, QC and sales departments

Job Activities:

- 1 To prepare laboratory powder and coated samples for product evaluation and colour matching.
2. To perform product testing using a range of techniques. (Training will be provided): Particle size analysis. Adhesion. Stability/heat/cold testing. Corrosion & mechanical testing. Tensile properties. Spectrometry.
3. To write reports on laboratory work and projects.
4. To write SOPs and check that relevant technical and QC documentation is maintained.
5. To ensure the analytical equipment is serviced and provide information on new suitable analytical techniques
6. To ensure compliance and improvements in health and safety

Qualifications, Experience and Requirements

Science degree background, preferably chemistry or similar.
Good communication and team working skills.
Numerate and literate.
Require minimum supervision and be self motivated.
Good working knowledge of Microsoft Office.
Be able to travel to work or live locally.
Practical knowledge of corrosion, an advantage.
Experience in a manufacturing environment an advantage.